Once again we look at Dylan more like a composer, the author of his songs, than as a director. And yet, did she really owe Matthew . Tobecompletelyhonest,thenovelneedswork. Doing the things he's accustomed to. Who doesn't know the perennial failure, the man or woman with brains and ability who never makes the top in his employment sphere because he is "afraid" his homosexuality will be discovered and he needs the obscurity of a low-paying, drudging job to protect him from exposure. These are really lovely and the colors are great. Uneasy companions at the best of times, the long-term couple pay a high price for freedom, but their efforts earn them a greater personal closeness.
