Nonlinear Time Series Analysis

In the last few months, the Libera Animal Rights Association and the Franz Weber Foundation submitted a report to the Council for Rural Affairs explaining that the lack of identification for horses was preventing their exact origin and condition from being known, with a view to hypothetical food traceability, as well as rendering it impossible for the legal authorities and security forces to identify those responsible for animal cruelty such as that described previously. Over the next few seasons, Ben develops a special bond with this seal, a bond that...
