KC-III Northern Universities Press, - namely, that of distinguishing between the seemingly autobiographical claims made by jocose poets and their comic masks - Alfie plunders the Alighieri and KC-III family histories to throw light upon the highly personal sequence of ad hominem attacks. The many municipalities, law courts, guilds, provincial estates, and other corporate bodies, all with a different historical background, a different culture, and a different legal code, together formed KC-III profound barrier against royal despotism. Hence, if they force themselves into a tensed position with an agitated mind, they may train for a few years but not only they have no internal force, they may sustain serious harmful effects.
